Central Tango

An unforgettable & exotic evening of professional Tango, traditional orchestra music, including dinner & beverages

This glorious old theatre was built at the beginning of the last century & well-know for its acoustic pedigree & historic beauty. Some of Argentina's greatest singers such as Juan D 'Arienzo, Angel Vargas & the silky voiced 'demi-God' of Tango, Carlos Gardel himself, performed here.

Enjoy a divine three course dinner accompanied by continuously served fine red & white wines & bottled water, topped off by an authentic exquisite Argentine tango show, where passion & seduction make their appearance every night.

Eight professional tango dancers, two of the cities top tango singers & a sextet orchestra on stage, trace the origins of tango down the ages. Central Tango is widely regarded as the cities leading Tango show.

CENTRAL TANGO performances & dinner are available on:
Monday 18th & Wednesday 20th

Round-trip transfers from your hotel to Central Tango will be provided.

Pre-reservations are absolutely essential & space is limited for each evening's performance on a first come, first served basis.
